

PRESS RELEASE

October 5, 2006

RE: UNITED STATES v. DAVID C. GLOVER
UNITED STATES v. DAVID W. MILLER, SR.

United States Attorney Terrance P. Flynn announced today that two Western New York men were sentenced following their guilty pleas to possessing child pornography. Earlier today, United States District Judge William M. Skretny sentenced David C. Glover, age 46, of East Aurora, New York, to 17½ years in prison for two counts of possessing child pornography (120 months on count one and 90 months on count two). Judge Skretny also sentenced Glover to lifetime supervised release. Yesterday afternoon, United States District Judge John T. Elfvin sentenced David W. Miller, Sr., age 50, of Lockport, New York, to slightly more than 7½ years for one count of possessing child pornography. Judge Elfvin also sentenced Miller to lifetime supervised release.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Marie P. Grisanti, the investigation of Glover began when an undercover F.B.I. agent obtained child pornography from Glover's file sharing folder on his computer. Glover pled guilty on May 23, 2006, to two counts of possessing child pornography. A forensic examination of the two computers seized during the execution of a federal search warrant at Glover's home revealed that Glover possessed more than 100 images and 650 videos of child pornography. In connection with his plea of guilty, Glover admitted that the child pornography he possessed included material involving prepubescent children.

Glover's conviction was the result of an investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, under the direction of Special Agent-in-Charge Laurie J. Bennett and the East Aurora Police Department.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Allison P. Gioia, David W. Miller pled guilty to a one count Indictment charging him with possession of child pornography on May 26, 2006. In connection with the plea, Miller admitted that on or about August 8, 2005, he possessed at least 300 images of child pornography. United States District Judge John T. Elfvin sentenced Miller to a term of imprisonment of 92 months, and a lifetime term of supervised release.

Miller's conviction was the result of an investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Niagara County Sheriff's Department and New York State Parole.